

Diversity Committee Description

Amend the Constitution to include election procedures and term limits in the Diversity Committee description:

Add to Section A. Organization: "Committee members shall be directly elected by their constituent groups and shall serve two-year terms, except students who shall be appointed to serve one-year terms. Each year, half of the members elected from each constituency will be up for reelection."