

Housekeeping Clause

The Executive Committee may make corrections to this Constitution, insofar as such corrections do not seek to change policies or rules established in this Constitution. A report of all corrections must be given to the Assembly at the next regular meeting. If the Assembly feels that these corrections are out of the scope of the Executive Committee, a majority vote of the Assembly may override these corrections. In this case, corrections with the same intent cannot be brought forward again by the Executive Committee under this clause.
